

TWO RIVERS GALLERY

IN CASE YOU MISSED MAY FIRST-FRIDAY OPENING RECEPTION

MAY 3, 2024

Featuring Oil Painter Rod Weagant

Rod has been painting the rural West from Alaska to North Central Washington for almost 50 years, creating over 6,000 paintings!

YOU WAIT FOR THIS EXHIBIT ALL YEAR – Rod Weagant has truly outdone himself this year.

His dramatic paintings capture the essence of nature – streams, rivers, plains, and majestic mountains come alive in Rod's art.

You must see them in person – Rod's paintings have a life of their own, each masterful brushstroke tells a story, and his captivating color palette is mesmerizing.

Rod, and his wife, Jane, present some of his latest oil paintings for the month of May. This will be Rod's 3rd exhibit at Two Rivers Gallery in the past few years. He sells many of his paintings through his studio gallery in Twisp, WA. His show hangs through June 1, 2024.

Welcome to our May / June Show

We are celebrating our 15th Anniversary as Wenatchee's Artist-Run Art Gallery

Each month we feature one of our outstanding artists in the front showrooms.

It is also opening night for over 50 local and regional artist members at our gallery.

Rod has twenty of his marvelous paintings of North Central Washington on exhibit.

We had many people flowing into the gallery this evening, even with other activities of the Washington State Apple Blossom Festival taking place in Wenatchee this weekend.

Sold! "Heather Meadows" was sold just after closing time Thursday night.

James Bryant on Guitar plays next to "Backlit Dalia" by Weagant. James played for several guests who stayed after closing just to enjoy his music.

Rod's ability to paint basalt and other rock formations is evident in his exhibit.

Larry Gay is presenting three of his bronze pieces. The one shown here can be rotated to see the sculpture from every angle. The painting is "Spring on the Plateau" by Rod Weagant.

Jan Cook Mack attended Rod's show. She and Rod have known each other since her son was born. Jan is now painting daily in her Easy Street gallery studio.

Sold! Congratulations to Margaret Bryant whose painting on a cigar box is perfect for a coffee table.

Sold! This painting by Barbara Conner Reed will be a perfect gift. Other works sold was a Rod Weagant painting of Lake Stewart, and a painting on a peacock feather by new member, Leanne Hickman. Leanne's painting is of a stagecoach being pulled by a team of horses. Leanne is leader of the Moses Lake artists.

Adelle Johnson poured some of the region's finest wines surrounded by the works of some of our finest artisans. The May/June show has entries by 53 local and regional artists. Last Sunday, five new artists joined Two Rivers Gallery.

Looking for the right painting for that special place?

If you've hiked into the East Base of Mt. Stewart, you will recognize this majestic view, captured by Rod Weagant. This is one of his smaller paintings on exhibit.

Don't miss Rod's show and other new artworks throughout the gallery during May and June. Rod's show will hang through June 1. Sheri Trepina is our featured artist for June. Last year, she was part of a 3-artist show. Sheri will present her latest watercolors and collage artworks.

Other featured artists are:

July 5, Barry Benbow

August 2, Jen Evenhus
